

GOP candidate to be speaker at fundraiser

Wednesday, 14 September 2011 00:00

G-O-P Presidential Candidate Michelle Bachmann is scheduled to be the headline speaker at a fundraising dinner for the Moore County Republican Party later this month. Bachmann won the Ames, Iowa straw poll, but is currently polling third behind Texas Governor Rick Perry and Former Massachusetts Governor Mitt Romney. Tickets for the September 29th dinner at the Pinehurst Resort Member's Club are 75 dollars apiece, although so space is limited. Bachmann is a Tea Party Leader and there are more than 17 hundred members in the local Tea Party Chapter. On the 30th, Bachmann will attend a morning fundraiser for her presidential campaign at The Country Club Of North Carolina.
