A Fort Bragg Paratrooper living in the Moore County Town of Cameron is dead. The body of Sergeant George Desormeaux The Second was discovered in the home he shared with his wife, Patricia. The cause of death of the 34-year-old soldier is under investigation. Desormeaux joined the army in 1995 and was honorably discharged. He rejoined in 2005 and was a Chemical Specialist with Headquarters and Headquarters Company, Second Brigade Special Troops Battalion. Desormeaux didn't live on post housing, although the land is owned by the army.
