

There are a series of Saturday events scheduled this year at the Liberty Tax Office in Aberdeen supporting local charities, and this Saturday January 21st is dedicated to the Animal Advocates of Moore County.

Animal Advocates of Moore County (AAMC) is a proactive, progressive nonprofit animal organization having the unique distinction of owning one of only two feral cat sanctuaries in the United States.

AAMC believes it is important to spay/neuter every animal and does not want money to be a deterrent to this critical service. We offer financial assistance with the cost of spay/neuter, as our budget allows.

The Operators of the Aberdeen Liberty Tax Office, locals Camelia and Mark Adel are the proud parents of five rescue animals and are very pleased to announce that proceeds from tax returns prepared on Saturday January 21st will be donated to the AAMC.

We invite you to come in and be a part of supporting this wonderful organization.
