Agency One Insurance Group, Inc., was established in 1980. We are a full service agency, currently serving the insurance needs of over 4000 individuals, families, and over 400 businesses in Moore County and surrounding areas. Mutual trust and personal service are the keys to our relationships with each of our clients. Your account is handled by one of our professionally trained agents. You can expect a prompt and courteous response when you contact our office. Whether you are calling to inquire about your current coverage or interested in a rate quote, we respond with conscientious attention to your needs. Agency One is an Independent Insurance Agency. We do not work for any insurance company. We work for you.
