We recently ventured back to The Market Place Restaurant in Pinehurst so Bonnie could show us some of her tasty lunchtime selections. Watch the video and learn how you can take home some of the dishes they are famous for and how to get The Market Place to host meetings and events. Plus, Bonnie solves the mystery of where exactly their new location is.

Nestled in the beautiful golf haven of Pinehurst, North Carolina, The Market Place is an exceptional gourmet foods lunch establishment. In an extremely competitive economy, staying in business for over 30 years is an elitist accomplishment.

But elite is exactly what The Market Place is. The food is delicious, the atmosphere is a pleasure, Southern hospitality is bountiful, the overall experience is highly delightful, and The Market Place is quite simply the place to be for lunch.
